

Children's Liturgy of the Word

12TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A MATTHEW 10:26-33
 OLDER CHILDREN

BACKGROUND

In the Liturgical Calendar, we have come to the end of Easter and return to Ordinary Time. To reflect this, you will notice that the priest this Sunday will be dressed in green. Green is for hope and growth, a time to reflect on Jesus' life and teachings.

This week, Jesus knows that the disciples will face difficulties. Many people will not listen to them. Even family members will turn away. Today's Gospel offers the disciples consolation against this difficult truth.

We might not face the same type of persecution as the early church, but we do experience difficulties as we try to live a Christian life. Sometimes we let the opinions of others stop us from doing what we know to be right. But it is good to remember that what God thinks about us is more important. We are reassured by the promise that God cares for us and protects us.

PREPARATION

Prepare a prayer focus with a green cloth (Ordinary Time) a place to receive the Children's Liturgy Candle. You may like to include a nest of sparrows, or a bird feeder. Set up a lectionary stand to receive the Children's Lectionary/read the Gospel from.

Activity materials:

- Poster "Do not be afraid: Put yourself in God's hands".
- Liturgical Year Calendar on the wall.
- Little people, two for each child, cut out.
- coloured pencils and blue-tac.
- You may have decorated the noticeboard with a flock of sparrows!
- A gift of a small packet of seed each to feed the birds this week.

SETTING THE SCENE

To help the children know they are still part of the Mass, ask what Father talked to them about before they came into the Children's Liturgy room. Ask what colour he is wearing (green). This is because Easter is over, and now we are in Ordinary Time. Show on the Liturgical Calendar.

Ask the children if they can remember any of the disciples names.

Let the children know that this Gospel is about Jesus getting the 12 disciples ready to go and tell everyone about how much God loves them. Some people won't want to listen to them. He's telling them to not be afraid, because God loves them very much.

WE SAY SORRY

Leader: You cover us with your protection, Lord have mercy.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: You entrust us with your work, Christ have mercy.

All: Christ, have mercy.

Leader: You give us all we need, Lord have mercy.

All: Lord, have mercy.

WE PRAY

God, help us to hear you and to follow you in whatever we do. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

You may like to ask one of the older children (a good reader) to read the Gospel. As everyone stands for the Gospel Acclamation, the reader goes to the Lectionary Stand.

At the end of the Gospel: The Gospel of the Lord

Children: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

REFLECTION ON THE READING

Ask the children what words they heard, and build up a list on the board. Summarise the Gospel using the words they have given.

Ask the children what was the first thing that Jesus said in this Gospel. (Do not be afraid)

- What might Jesus' disciples have been afraid of?
- Have you ever needed to help someone not be afraid? What did you do?
- What are some things that Jesus tells us is the right thing to do?
- Has there been a time when you've had to stand up for something you believe?
- How can the Gospel reading help us to remember to stay strong in God's ways.
- Ask the children what Jesus said about sparrows and the disciples.

RESPONSE

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to strengthen the disciples to share what they believed at Pentecost. We are also asked share what we believe, and always live in the way Jesus taught us, even when others don't agree. Because he loves us even more than the sparrows, we can trust God and put ourselves in God's hands.

Give the children two of the cut-out people. Ask them to colour them in and put their name on one, and a friend's name on the other. As they finish, invite them to put them in God's hands on the poster. As they do, delight in saying, "Put yourself in God's hands!"

WE BELIEVE

Relating to the creed what you have shared with the children, ask this series of questions and invite the children to reply, 'I do.'

- Do you believe in God the Father?
- Do you believe in God the Son, Jesus, who came to call people to God?
- Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit, who inspires people today to follow Jesus?

"I do, Alleluia! Alleluia!"

WE PRAY

Conclude in prayer together. Invite the children to name ways in which they or their friends need God's help.

Respond to each prayer with: God, we trust you because you know us so well.

All: Amen

Conclude with the Glory Be...

The children return to the pews during the Offertory Procession with bag of birdseed and worksheet.
